

Bluegrass Bats Hold Tryouts for 2009 Team

The Bluegrass Bat Signal is shining again to attract Kentucky's best lacrosse players to join the 2009 travel team. The Bluegrass Bats will be holding tryouts on May 16th at Bats Field at 12:30 p.m. Last years team traveled to South Carolina and Gettysburg for fall competition. This summer the Bats will swoop to Cincinnati, Gettysburg, and Traverse City to showcase their skills. The tryout is open but coach recommendations are encouraged. A 25 athlete roster will be filled. The tryout will involve skills assessment and game play using an objective matrix method. There is no fee to try out. Tryouts will be held at Bats Field located at 8711 LaGrange Road in Louisville, Kentucky. The Bats are planning a fun filled summer. If you are looking for excitement, fun, travel, competition, and a means to accelerate and showcase your game with Kentucky's best, consider trying out for the Bluegrass Bats Lacrosse Club.
